The Lok Satta Party has decided to field candidates in 2 out of 7 assembly seats for which by elections are scheduled to take place in March 18.

Lok Satta Party Working President DVVS Varma, and General Secretary V. Lakshman Balaji said in a media statement on Saturday that Mr. Nelluri Narsaiah will contest from Kovur constituency in Nellore district. The party would name a candidate for Mahaboobnagar seat on Feb 27.

The Lok Satta leaders said that the party is not fielding candidates in the 5 other seats to honour the Telangana sentiment of those who are seeking re-election after resignations.
