The Lok Satta Party will be celebrating its fifth anniversary at Ongole, Prakasam district headquarters, on October 8 and 9.

Giving this information in a media statement, party Working President D. V. V. S. Varma said the program begins with a conference of State party leaders with party President Dr. Jayaprakash Narayan in the chair on October 8. There will be a public meeting at 5-00 p.m.

The State Working Committee will meet on October 9.

Mr. Varma said that the party would discuss and finalize an action plan to achieve electoral and administrative reforms as a follow up to the institution of powerful and independent anti corruption mechanisms in the country. It would also focus on measures to empower citizens through devolution of powers and resources on local bodies. It would draw up plans to launch an agitation for conduct of timely local body elections and to strengthen the party organization.
